

You've a Hundred Sheep

a hymn/song from Luke 15:1-10

text by Constance Morgenstern mf "You've a hun - dred sheep," said Je - sus. "Wait! One's gone? So, fran - tic - ly, "Coins of sil - ver— ten— a two sto - man had. What? Just nine? She swept the floors.

Je - sus told us these a wo - ries as some lead - ers crit - i - cized

5
you leave nine - ty - nine out graz - ing, find it, then say hap - pi - ly,
With her lamp, she caught a lit - tle glint, found her the coin, and called folk o'er.
5 that he ate with sin - ful peo - ple. But the sto - ries show be - sides:

9
f 'Be glad with me, neigh - bors, friends.'" Christ said, "It's like that in Heav'n.
"Be glad with me, neigh - bors, friends.'" Christ said, "It's like that in Heav'n.
9 God who works for turn - a - round; God who seeks, that lost are found;

13
Joy rings 'round the an - gels when one lost sin - ner's found, re - pents."
Joy rings in 'round the where joy a - bounds, one lost sin - ner's found, re - pents."
13 God in Heav'n the joy a - bounds, one lost sin - ner's found, re - pents."

17
3.
and with neigh - bors, too, rit. re - sounds.
17

WordSown.com

Text and this arrangement ©2025 WordSown.com
Tune adapted from WEISSE FLAGGEN, Tochter Zion, Cologne, 1741

This music may be freely copied and streamed for noncommercial purposes. For other uses, check our copyright policy at WordSown.com.